Hello,

A regulation to eliminate options trading in my IRA account would severely restrict my ability to grow my assets.

I've learned how to trade options to consistently and safely earn a reliable return on my investment.

We need a government that is going to treat us like adults and this regulation would do the exact opposite.

It is important that the government doesn't get involved in how we manage our money, but let the free market rule!

Thanks for deciding against this regulation.

Regards,

John Reed
